			3 Star Rating	***
Guiding Principles	Operates with cultural responsiveness and recognizes families as the child's first teacher	Promotes equity in access and allocation of resources for populations furthest from opportunity	Moves beyond cultural compliance to one of continuous improvement	Supports practice-based evidence and data-driven decision-making and accountability for realistic and measurable outcomes	Ensures that family-parent voice and roles are respected, enlisted, included and valued	Promotes collaboration, alignment and coordination within communities and across sectors
Standards	Strengths:	Strengths:	Strengths:	Strengths:	Strengths:	Strengths:
Environment: The program's indoor and outdoor environments, furnishings, and materials support children's rearing and development.	Challenges:	Challenges:	Challenges:	Challenges:	Challenges:	Challenges:
Experiences: Program's daily routines support all children's learning and development. Routines and schedules are consistent and responsive to	Strengths:	Strengths:	Strengths:	Strengths:	Strengths:	Strengths:
children's needs and provide opportunities for learning with planned activities and materials.	Challenges:	Challenges:	Challenges:	Challenges:	Challenges:	Challenges:
	Strengths:	Strengths:	Strengths:	Strengths:	Strengths:	Strengths:
Inclusiveness of children, families and cultures: The program welcomes all children and families.	Challenges:	Challenges:	Challenges:	Challenges:	Challenges:	Challenges:
	Strengths:	Strengths:	Strengths:	Strengths:	Strengths:	Strengths:
Positive Interactions: Program staff interacts with children in a warm, positive, and respectful manner.	Challenges:	Challenges:	Challenges:	Challenges:	Challenges:	Challenges:
Educator Qualifications: Educators are presently qualified to serve in their	Strengths:	Strengths:	Strengths:	Strengths:	Strengths:	Strengths:
positions through education, training and experience.	Challenges:	Challenges:	Challenges:	Challenges:	Challenges:	Challenges: