THE FACTS

Hollie Arrell Nothwang's (the provider) Registered Family Child Care Home license (license) was first issued a license on April 12, 2012. Pursuant to ORS 329A.330(1) and (2), this license allows a provider to care for up to ten children, including the provider's own children, in the provider's home.

On or about July 9, 2018, the Office of Child Care (OCC), received information from

Based on these circumstances and resulting concerns, OCC made a determination that the provider is not suitable, Ms. Arrell-Nothwang's enrollment in the Central Background Registry (CBR) has been suspended effective July 9, 2018.

The fact of _____ raises serious concerns for OCC related to the health and safety of the child care children in the provider's care. OCC finds that the continued operation of this registered family child care facility poses a serious danger to the public health and safety.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The provider, Hollie Arrell-Nothwang, is responsible for the operation of the Registered Family Child Care Home including compliance with licensing requirements. OAR 414-205-0010(20). The provider has failed to provide a safe and healthy environment for child care children and has placed children for whom she is responsible at risk.

The provider violated OAR 414-205-0040(1)(b), OAR 414-205-0075(1)&(2) and OAR 414-205-0100(2) by violating the condition of her license while allowing her minor son, J.T.N. to have unsupervised access to child care children.

OCC finds serious danger to the public health or safety to child care children based on the provider's negligence in protecting her children from harm.

This violation raises serious doubts about the provider's ability and willingness to provide a safe and healthy environment. Based on the facts and non-compliance with the applicable rules, the provider's Registered Family Child Care Home license is suspended effective July 9, 2018.

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO REQUEST HEARING

You have the right to demand a hearing to be held as soon as practicable to contest the emergency suspension order. If the demand for hearing is not received within 90 days of the date of notice of the emergency suspension order, you have waived your right to a hearing regarding the emergency suspension order.

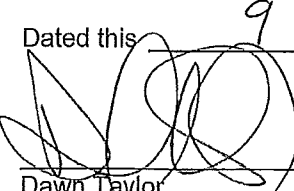

The request should be sent to the Office of Child Care, 700 Summer ST, NE, Suite 350 Salem, OR 97301. The request may also be submitted via fax at (503) 947-1428 or e-mail occ.hearings@state.or.us. After receiving the request, a hearing date will be set and you will be notified. You will be provided with information on the procedures, right of representation and other rights of parties relating to the conduct of the hearing before commencement of the hearing.

Active duty service members have a right to stay proceedings under the federal Service members Civil Relief Act and may contact the Oregon State Bar (1-800-452-8260) or the Oregon Military Department for more information (1-800-452-7500). The United States Armed Forces Legal Assistance Legal Services Locator can be accessed at <http://legalassistance.law.af.mil/content/locator.php>.

If you fail to request a hearing, if you request a hearing and subsequently withdraw your request for hearing, if you fail to appear for the hearing, or if a hearing is scheduled and you later notify the OCC that you will not appear at the specified time and place, the OCC may issue a final order in this matter. The OCC designates as the record, the OCC's complete file which automatically becomes part of the contested case record upon default for the purpose of proving a prima facie case.

When the agency is required to issue a contested case notice pursuant to ORS 183.415, the notice shall include: (h) If the party is an agency, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, trust, government body or an unincorporated association, a statement that the party must be represented by an attorney licensed in Oregon, unless statutes applicable to the contested case proceeding specifically provide otherwise.
