Safe Sleep Rules for CC, CF, RF and RS

The following safe sleep practices must be followed:

- (a) Each infant shall sleep in a crib, portable crib, bassinet or playpen with a clean, non-absorbent mattress. All cribs, portable cribs, bassinets and playpens must comply with current Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) standards;
- (b) Bassinets may only be used until the infant is able to roll over on their own;
- (c) Each mattress shall:
 - (A) Fit snugly; and
 - (B) Be covered by a tightly fitting sheet;
- (d) A clean sheet shall be provided for each child;
- (e) Infants must be placed on their backs on a flat surface for sleeping;
- (f) While on the child care premises, if an infant falls asleep in a place other than their crib, portable crib, bassinet or playpen, the caregiver must immediately move the infant to an appropriate sleep surface;
- (g) No child shall be routinely left in a crib, portable crib, bassinet or playpen except for sleep or rest;
- (h) There shall be no items in the crib with the infant, except a pacifier (e.g. bottles, toys, pillows, stuffed animals, blankets, bumpers);
- (i) Swaddling or other clothing or covering that restricts the child's movement is prohibited;
- (j) Clothing or items that could pose a strangulation hazard (e.g. teething necklaces, pacifier attachments, clothing drawstrings) are prohibited; and
- (k) Car seats are to be used for transportation only. Children who are asleep in a car seat must be removed upon arrival to the center and placed in an appropriate sleep surface.

Protocol Considerations

- Expected time frame for notifications (number of days from the valid determination).
- Documentation of notification (CCRIS/ELIS narrative, checkbox and fillable narrative, etc.).
- Format of notification (phone call, letter, etc.).
- Monitoring and reporting of OCC notifications (monthly report, data pull as needed, etc.).

STATUTORY/OTHER AUTHORITY: ORS 329A.030

STATUTES/OTHER IMPLEMENTED: ORS 329A.030; HB 2259 (2017)

AMEND: 414-061-0050

RULE TITLE: History to Be Considered

RULE SUMMARY: Rule revisions reflect new requirements of the CCDBG Act of 2014 (45 CFR 98) and HB 2259 (2017).

RULE TEXT:

(1) OCC has determined that serious felonies and misdemeanors involving violence or unauthorized sexual conduct, especially with children or otherwise vulnerable persons, is fundamentally inconsistent with any responsibility for care of children. Conviction of crimes listed in Category I of this rule shall disqualify a subject individual from being enrolled in the Central Background Registry, unless the subject individual provides sufficient evidence of suitability as described in section (9) of this rule.

(a) OCC will consider conviction of the following crimes for 15 years or less prior to the date the subject individual signed the Application for Enrollment in OCC's Central Background Registry. The 15 years will run from the date of arrest, citation, charge, or conviction whichever is later.

(I) 163.263 Subjecting another person to involuntary servitude in the second degree.

(J) 163.213 Unlawful use of an electrical stun gun, tear gas or mace in the first degree.

(2) OCC has further determined that felonies and misdemeanors involving theft, fraud, or deception, crimes against the state and public justice, and major traffic violations may substantially jeopardize the safety of children and are inconsistent with any position of unsupervised contact with children or otherwise vulnerable persons. If any subject individual was convicted of a crime listed in Category II of this rule, OCC will seek to obtain and review information on all intervening circumstances and other background information related to criminal activity, subject to section (9) of this rule. OCC will make a determination whether an individual is suitable for enrollment in the Central Background Registry based on all information available.

(a) OCC will consider conviction of the following crimes for 5 years or less prior to the date the subject individual signed the Application for Enrollment in OCC's Central Background Registry. The 5 years will run from the date of arrest, citation, charge, or conviction whichever is later.

(4) OCC has determined that child abuse and neglect history may substantially jeopardize the safety of children and is inconsistent with any position of unsupervised contact with children or otherwise vulnerable persons. If any subject individual has a child abuse and neglect history, OCC will seek to obtain and review information related to the history, including information from the subject individual, subject to section (9) of this rule. Based on this information, OCC will make a decision whether or not to enroll, suspend or remove the subject individual in or from the Central Background Registry.

(5) OCC has determined that a substantiated finding of adult abuse may substantially jeopardize the safety of child care children and could be inconsistent with any position of unsupervised contact with children. If a subject individual discloses adult protective services history, OCC will seek to obtain and review information related to the history, including information from the subject individual, subject to section (9) of this rule. Based on this information, OCC will make a decision whether or not to enroll, suspend or remove the subject individual in or from the Central Background Registry.

(6) OCC has determined that foster care certification history may, depending on the history, substantially jeopardize the safety of child care children and could be inconsistent with any position of unsupervised contact with children. If a subject individual discloses foster care certification history, OCC will seek to obtain and review information related to the history, including information from the subject individual, subject to section (9) of this rule. Based on this information, OCC will make a decision whether or not to enroll, suspend or remove the subject individual in or from the Central Background Registry.

(7) OCC has determined a subject individual in a diversion program or similar agreement for any Category I or Category II crime, depending on the history, may substantially jeopardize the safety of child care children and could be inconsistent with any position of unsupervised contact with children. If a subject individual discloses a diversion program or similar agreement for any Category I or Category II crime, OCC will seek to obtain and review information related to the history, including information from the subject individual, subject to section (9) of this rule. Based on this information, OCC will make a decision whether or not to enroll, suspend or remove the subject individual in or from the Central Background Registry.

(8) If OCC determines that additional information is needed to assess a person's suitability to be enrolled or remain enrolled in the Central Background Registry, the subject individual shall provide the requested information within the required timeframes. The additional information may include, but is not limited to, an evaluation or assessment by a physician, counselor or other qualified person, documents to determine positive identification of the subject individual, and court documents.

(9) Factors to be considered in determining suitability, based on information available to OCC and information provided by the subject individual, include:

(a) The nature of the, child abuse and neglect, foster care, adult protective services, or criminal history;

(b) The facts that support the child abuse and neglect, foster care, adult protective services, or criminal history or that indicate the making of a false statement;

(c) The relevancy of the, child abuse and neglect, foster care, adult protective services, criminal history, or false statement to the individual's enrollment in the Central Background Registry; and

(d) Intervening circumstances relevant to the individual's enrollment in the Central Background Registry, including but not limited to:

(A) The passage of time since the child abuse and neglect, foster care, adult protective services, or criminal history;

(B) The age of the individual at the time of the child abuse and neglect, foster care, adult protective services, or criminal history;

(C) The likelihood of repetition of the incident or the commission of another crime;

(D) The existence of subsequent child abuse and neglect, foster care, adult protective services, or criminal history;

(E) The recommendation of an employer, if provided;

(F) For criminal history, whether the conviction was set aside or overturned and the legal effect of that setting aside or overturning; and

(G) For, child abuse and neglect, foster care, or adult protective services, whether the subject individual has had an opportunity to contest the abuse finding through the agency or entity that made the finding and, if so, the status of any such challenge.

(10) OCC will not bar from enrollment in the Central Background Registry any subject individual because of the existence or contents of a juvenile record that has been expunged by the court.
